Dear Jo,

Hope you're OK. I'm writing to you from Sicily. We arrived here last week. There are lots of tourists here. We came by boat. There was a storm, but the boat didn't sink!

The island is very beautiful with lots of trees and clear, calm water. It's paradise! We are staying in a house in the south of the island. It's very peaceful.

My twin brothers love it here. Every morning they play in the sand or swim. At midday we catch fish for lunch and cook them on the beach. It tastes delicious. Sometimes in the evening we explore the island.

I woke up early this morning and collected shells on the beach. Now I'm sitting and relaxing on the beach. It's a beautiful, sunny day. I want to come to Sicily again next year.

Are you having a nice time?

See you soon,

Love

Jenny

The history of chocolate in Europe

In the 15th century a Spanish explorer called Cortez discovered Mexico. When he arrived in Mexico people were drinking chocolate.

In Mexico chocolate used to be a drink for rich and important people. It was called 'chocolatl'. A Mexican king called Montezuma used to drink 50 cups a day. He gave Cortez and his friends the chocolate drink.

Cortez took this drink back to Spain. It was an expensive drink for rich people, but the people disliked it, so they added sugar to the drink and they made it hot. Then people everywhere in Europe began to drink hot chocolate.

In the 19th century an English person made the first chocolate to eat and it became popular.

In 1876 a man in Switzerland was making chocolate one day and he added milk. This became the first milk chocolate.

Dear Agony Aunt,

My parents don't let me go out with my friends. They say it's dangerous and they believe that my friends are not honest and reliable. My friends have been patient, but I'm afraid they may get tired of me or they may believe that I don't like them. What should I do?

2 _____

Dear Agony Aunt,

My best friend can't go out because she can't afford it. Her parents are very poor and they can't give her pocket money. I've often asked her to go to the cinema. I promise to buy her ticket, but she always says 'No'. Should I make new friends? I feel confused and I need some advice!

Answer A

Dear Mary,

'A friend in need is a friend indeed'. Don't forget your friend when she's in trouble. Life is simple and we don't need money for everything. Why don't you ask your friend to go out for a walk or to come to your house? I'm sure she won't say 'No'. Show her that you care about her.

Agony Aunt

Answer B

Dear John,

I'm sure your parents love you, but they are afraid. You should invite your friends to your home. Your parents may change their opinion when they get to know them. They may start to trust them and let you go out with them.

When I grow up I want to be a ...

When I was 7, I was a bad pupil. At primary school I was really naughty and I did a lot of stupid things in class. As a result my teachers were often very angry. I also had few friends because nobody likes naughty people.

But I wasn't stupid. I enjoyed general knowledge and I often read magazines and newspapers, but the lessons weren't fun. When I went to secondary school I decided that I wanted to become a pilot. I've always found aeroplanes exciting. But I was surprised to hear that a pilot should be good at Maths, Physics and a lot of other subjects. My marks were bad and nobody thought I was good enough to pass the exams and apply for the job.

Was it too late to start trying? My friends thought I wouldn't be able to pass. I studied as hard as I could and my marks became better and better. Everybody thought that it was some kind of trick.

Now I am a pilot and I can tell you the trick: Hard work!

Galactic Day 3025

We reached the first planet of the New Galaxy. I landed with a group of men and we set off to explore. The air is very fresh. It's the most beautiful place I've ever seen. We looked everywhere for natives, but we didn't find any. We took gold rocks and exotic purple plants back with us to the spaceship. When we were leaving there was a strange sand storm with bright lights. We couldn't see and our captain had to give us directions back. If we didn't have our space telephone equipment, we would still be lost.

If we had more time, we could stay here for a year, but our friends and families are waiting for us. We have already been here too long. We have taken lots of photos. Dear Laura,

Thanks for your letter! I'm writing from our new house. It's perfect.

It's got three bedrooms and a big living room. Opposite the living room, there's the kitchen. There's a big garden in front of the house. It's got a lot of flowers and exotic plants.

My bedroom is not as big as the one in the old house, but it's got a big balcony. I usually sit here so I can look at the beach and relax.

My aunt lives close to the new house. Last Tuesday we went there to have dinner. We had chicken with green beans, carrots and potatoes. Then she gave us peaches and ice cream. I was starving and it tasted delicious.

Guess what! Last week my dad bought me a new pet. I wanted to buy a snake, but Mum says they're dangerous. They bought me a cat, Sunny. I think she's very intelligent and she's faster than a tiger! Yesterday she was sleeping on the balcony when she saw a mouse. She jumped off the chair and ate it in a few seconds.

My mum is going to buy a new computer for the house. I asked her to buy a modem because I want to send e-mails to my friends.

Tomorrow I'm going to the cinema. There's a new thriller with Mark Mitt and I'm sure it'll be exciting.

I'll write again soon.

All the best,

Andrea

Dear Mum,

Hope you're OK. Mary and I have been in Paris for two days and we've already spent lots of money.

I've already been shopping in all the famous shops. Yesterday I visited some designer clothes shops and I spent about €500. I know we're not rich and I should be more careful. Could you send us some more money? Shall I go to the bank on Monday?

The restaurants here are lovely. The food is delicious and the prices are cheaper than at home. I may go to the Eiffel Tower, but I'm afraid because it is so high. Mary says I don't have to go up there with her.

I would like to go to the Louvre, which is a famous art museum. I haven't been there yet. I wanted to go yesterday but I was tired after shopping, so I'm going to visit it tomorrow. I'm sure it's going to be a great place.

Today we met a German student who has been here for 13 months. He showed us the centre of Paris today.

Why don't you and Dad come for a weekend? You'll love it.

I'll write soon.

Dear John,

You won't believe it. I'm in Venice! It's amazing!

People here travel by boat. There are very few streets. A lot of the rivers are used as streets. There are long boats like buses. They are called 'vaporettos'. What happens if you miss one? You can wait for the next one or if you are more romantic, you can take a 'gondola', which is a small boat. The captains of these gondolas take you along the rivers to see the sights of the city. Beautiful old houses and palaces are built on the sides of the canals and on small islands.

I'm really lucky! It's carnival time and there are crowds everywhere. People are wearing colourful costumes and masks. Many gondolas are decorated and used as floats. The celebrations take place in the big square in front of San Marco, which is a wonderful old church. People have a good time.

Now I know that if I want to become an architect, I've got to study hard. I think I will do my project on Italian architecture, which is a very interesting subject. If I were rich, I would stay here forever. There are so many things to see and so many things to learn.

If I have enough money, I'll come again next year. Do you want to come with me?

Write and tell me your news.

All the best,

Maria
